Bonjour!

Before I teach you, I would like to know a few things so that I pitch the lessons at the right level and tailor them to suit what you are aiming to achieve. All of my clients have different experiences of French, abilities and personal aims and I want to get the lessons right for you, so many thanks for taking the time to fill this in. (2 pages to follow)

1. Do you already have any qualifications in French and if so please list them below.

2. How would you describe your knowledge of French -no knowledge / poor / average / good / very good / excellent.

3. How many years have you been learning French and / or when did you last speak or use any French?

4. Briefly describe in your own words in the space provided below the reasons you want to learn French and also tick the reasons listed here that apply to you:

- |                   |                       |

| Travel (business) | <input type="radio"/> |
| Exam preparation  | <input type="radio"/> |
| Interest          | <input type="radio"/> |

Your own words:

5. What will be most important to you in lessons (this may change as we progress):

Please tick what is appropriate from the following list and then add any of your own ideas at the end:

Vocabulary acquisition

Useful phrases and expressions

Basic greetings

Grammar and clear explanations

Speaking and developing fluency

Every day conversation

Pronunciation and accent

Specific topics

Exam preparation and coaching

List below anything else that will be important to you in French lessons or areas where you would like to progress in particular:
